Several local motorists who were enroute home from Indianapolis arrived on the scene soon after the crash. Harry Crawford stated that the Ford truck was badly demolished as if a train had hit it. According to others, the people in the Ford truck were from Paducah, Kentucky, enroute to Detroit, Mich., where they were going to seek employment.

HAVE CLOSE CALL EARLY WEDNESDAY.

Howard Denny's automobile was demolished when struck by No. 3 fast southbound Monon passenger train about 2:25 o'clock Wednesday morning at the Jackson street crossing. Denny and other occupants of the car miraculously escaped serious injury.

Denny was towing his racing car and had started to the dirt track races at Decatur, Ill. After the crash, Denny secured another car to tow his racer to Decatur and arrived in time for the Fourth of July races.

Mr. Denny is chief mechanic at the Moffett & Dobbs service station on south Jackson street.

There was no warning from the railroad that the train was coming, and it was moving rapidly and Mr. Denny to prevent striking the train, swerved his car to the west and moved with the train, but the drivers struck the side of the car, damaging it.

There should be a signal bell or something at this crossing in operation after the flagman goes off duty. Unless some precautionary measures are taken, a fatal accident may happen at this crossing.

Babushkin and Two Aides Fought For Hours To Keep Ice From Crushing
Fragile Seaplane.

KINGS BAY, SPITZBERGEN, July 5 (UP)—Three of the 24 men who have been trapped within the bitterly cold arctic wastes have come alive and reports reaching here said three others—missing since May 30 had been seen.

The men who came out were the Russian Aviator Babushkin and his two aides.

Friday Babushkin started an airplane search for members of the crew of the Babushkin Italia. He was working in connection with the Russian ice breaker Malignin.

Four days passed without a word of the Russian hero. His radio was of small range and signals were not picked up. A fog held over the territory. The Soviet government expressed the hope that Babushkin had landed because of the fog and that as soon as it lifted he would rejoin his mother ship.

Yesterday Babushkin flew back to the Malignin. He told how he had been forced down in open water because of the fog and how he and his two companions had battled for hours to prevent the floating ice bars from crushing the fragile seaplane.

RADIO ORDINANCE

Some ten years ago, as you may remember, the United States was engaged in a war to make the world safe for democracy. Today the city of Wabash is engaged in a battle to make the city safe for the radio fan.

Members of the city council last night adopted an ordinance declaring that the use of any electrical machinery, with the exception of street cars and X-Ray machines in cases of emergency, which might cause radio interference, between the hours of 4 in the afternoon and 11 at night, is unlawful and will be considered as a public nuisance. The ordinance provides for a $10 fine to which may be added a ten days' jail sentence, for violation.

SEATTLE TRIP DESCRIBED BY
J. O. CAMMACKLOCAL PHOTOGRAPHER WAS
DELEGATE TO NATIONAL KI-WANIS CONVENTION.

MEETING HELD JUNE 17-21

Special Train Left Chicago On June
11. Went To Seattle By Northern Route.

J. O. Cammack, official delegate of the Greencastle Kiwanis club to the national Kiwanian convention at Seattle, Wash., last month gave an informal report on his trip at the regularly weekly luncheon of the organization Thursday noon at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Cammack stated that the special train carrying the Indiana and the Kentucky-Tennessee delegations was supposed to have been made up at Indianapolis, but was not made up until the Kiwanians reached Chicago. The Indiana delegation was headed by Gov. Bob Chambers and the Kentucky-Tennessee group by Gov. Jim Jarvis, of Barbourville, Ky.

The Kiwanis special left Chicago at 10 o'clock Monday night, June 11. The first stop was St. Paul where members of the Kiwanis Club there drove the visitors over the city and then took them to the Falls of Minnehaha. Here the delegates were taken in charge by the Minneapolis Club who entertained them royally with lunch in the gorgeous Art Institute and a tour of the thriving Minnesota metropolis.

The next stop for the special was Winnipeg, Canada. The Kiwanians arrived there at 7 a. m., June 13 and left that afternoon at 3:30 p. m. Mr. Cammack said that the train travelled for miles over level country, passing through the richest wheat belt in the world. At the next two stops, Saskatoon and Edmonton, the delegates were entertained by Canadian Kiwanis members. They then visited Jasper Park, which according to Mr. Cammack, is the largest public park in the world. It is located in the heart of the Rocky Mountains and contains 4,500 square miles.

Vancouver, B. C., Mr. Cammack said is the most beautiful city he has ever visited in his estimation. There were flowers everywhere, he stated. At Seattle, the convention held its opening session on Sunday night, June 17. The Kiwanians informally dedicated the new auditorium in that city which has just been completed. The convention lasted until June 21.

On his return trip, Mr. Cammack, and a number of other delegates came by the way of Salt Lake City and Denver. His official report on the convention will be given before the club at a later date. He is also preparing numerous photographs, taken during the trip and at the convention which will not only be of interest to members of the club but to Greencastle citizens in general.

Wealthy Belgian
Falls From PlaneALFRED LOWENSTEIN PLUNGES
INTO ENGLISH CHANNEL
WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

LONDON, July 5. (UP)—Captain Alfred Lowenstein, mystery man of international high finance, brought his spectacular career to a mysterious end when he stepped last night from a door of one of his fleet private airplanes as it sped across the English Channel, and dropped into the sea.

Today, while the Dunkirk fishing fleet dragged the French coasts and the England-Belgium airplane route for his body, stocks in Lowenstein's companies slithered down in demoralized fashion on the London exchange.

The mystery of Lowenstein's end, though apparently susceptible of simple explanation, caused wide conjecture throughout European financial circles.

DR. MGAUGHEY HAS
UNUSUAL EXPERIENCEAuto of Local Physician Stalls In Road Covered by Water Early
This Morning.

Dr. W. M. McGaughey had quite an experience early this morning, while trying to get to a patient and then in trying to get back home. A man came to his home this morning, about 2:30 wanting a doctor to come to Clinton Falls and wanting him to call, there first, so that they could meet him in a wagon as the water was so high.

On the Brick Chapel road a tree had fallen and it was necessary for him to turn and come back another road. After seeing the patient at Clinton Falls on the way home just as he reached the Dunbar hill, water was gushing across the road, but feeling that he could get across all right, he drove into the water which covered the engine completely, and the car stalled. The doctor said that he sat there about ten minutes and within that course of time the water raised about six inches. Dr. McGaughey had to wade out of the place and come to town for a wrecker to bring his car in.

Fields of Wheat and Corn in Putnam
Show Effects of Wind. Heavy Rain Last Night.

Wednesday morning at three o'clock, and again at six o'clock, this community was visited by one of the worst wind storms that has swept this section of Indiana in many years.

It was a small sized twister and evidence of its strength was seen at many points through the county during the day. Heavy fields of wheat and corn were damaged by being blown down and trees in many sections of the community were leveled.

One large tree was blown across the pavement east of the city and the county road repair force had to be called out to cut it up to clear away the road for early morning traffic.

The storm hovered over the community throughout the day, but no rain fell until Wednesday night about 9:30, when a regular cloud burst hit the city.

EYE IS HURT
BY TORPEDOEUGENE RUARK INJURED BY CARELESSNESS OF FOURTH
CELEBRATER.

Eugene Ruark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ruark who resides west of the city, was painfully injured by an exploding torpedo late Wednesday afternoon. Young Ruark, who will be a senior in the local high school this fall, was standing in front of the Fleenor drug store when fragments of a Fourth of July torpedo struck him in the right eye.

His eye ball was cut and bruised by the explosion. Dr. W. R. Hutcheson believes that his eye sight will not be impaired. The injury, however, is very painful and is due to the carelessness of some person who was celebrating the Fourth in a hilarious and negligent manner.

Young Ruark was taken into the Fleenor store where he was given first aid attention. At that time it was thought his eye was badly hurt but fortunately it should not prove serious.

E. J. Schlichte, 58, of Connersville business man, and Miss Marie Gering, 18, Oldenburg, employed as a servant in his home, were drowned in Lake Wawasee when a boat in which they were riding was upset as a result of being struck by another boat. The number of known dead at 10:30 a. m., stood at 189.

SYDNEY, July 5. (UI)—The first clergyman in Australia to employ an airplane for pastoral visitations was the Rev. L. Daniels, Anglican Minister at Wilcannia, in the far west of New South Wales.

He began by flying his Moth plane from Melbourne to his home nearly 500 miles away in a few hours, completing the first two of two hops, a distance of 240 miles, in a little over two hours. His "parish" he claimed to be one of the largest in the world. Daniels gained his flying knowledge during the Great War.

Dance Music. Other Amusements
During The Day For All.

The members of the Greencastle Country club and many friends and guests enjoyed a full day at the Country Club on Wednesday. The rain held off just long enough for the fire works committee to complete its work, and then the heavens let loose and the whole community was flooded.

Throughout the day the largest crowd to ever gather at the Club, was on hand. The men and women golfers spent the day on the links and the youngsters as well as the grown-ups spent most of the time in the big swimming pool and in other forms of entertainment around the club house.

It was the most successful day of the club's history. Before six o'clock the women were busy preparing their picnic supper. Everyone brought "well filled baskets" and it was a bountiful spread that was enjoyed in the cooling breezes that blew across the grounds. In the distance was the low roll of thunder, the boiling black clouds and the flash of lightning, but this did not stop the crowd, neither did it bother them because they enjoyed everything until the worst came.

About dark, the fire works committee got busy and the most lavish display of fireworks the club has ever enjoyed were lighted from the field just north of the club house. The committee, near the close of the program had to hurry things along and no sooner were they through than the rain storm broke, flooding everything.

Those who remained at the club house spent the remainder of the evening dancing to the music of Bill Blanchard's orchestra.

FLIERS SPEED
OF S. AMERICAITALIAN AVIATORS SUCCEED IN TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHT
REPORTS STATE.

(BULLETIN)

BUENOS AIRES, July 5. (UP)—Safe over the South American mainland after breaking all long distance flight records, two Italian aviators, Ferrarin and Del Prete, were sighted over Natal, Brazil, this afternoon on their way to Buenos Aires.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, July 5. (UP)—With all long distance flight records broken, Major Arturo Ferrarin and Maj. Carlo Del Prete, of the Italian Royal air force, were believed today to be speeding at 135 miles an hour down the Brazilian coast toward Buenos Aires on a 7,000 mile airplane flight from Rome.

The two fliers, the stars of the crack Italian air force, left Montecarlo airfield at Rome at 1:51 p. m. E. S. T. Tuesday, determined to break their own world record for endurance as well as to establish a record that would be hard to break for a point-to-point flight.

Their route to Buenos Aires was almost twice as long as that of Lindbergh from New York to Paris.

From time to time the aviators have signalled that all was going well, but have not given their position.

The latest message concerning them—an unconfirmed one from Rio de Janeiro to the Italian radio corporation at Rome—said that they had been seen flying southward along the Brazilian coast.

Crowds began gathering in front of newspaper offices here awaiting word of the plane. Iburu Camp, the landing field here, was illuminated early so that the fliers would not miss it. Officials of the Latecoere Aircraft corporation were busy arranging for the landing of the plane—seemingly assured the two Italians would negotiate the longest non-stop flight in history.

Do you know? What Everywoman Knows

"Went into Kelly's Grocery yesterday and opened up by saying, 'How did the convention suit you, Mr. Kelly?'"

"No time to talk politics during business hours!" came his answer, and I'll bet he thought I was going to ask if he was a Democrat or a Republican.

So I said, "Well, take time to tell me something about Middy Bread." "Well, Middy Bread is all right," he said, "as good as any bread and some of my customers like it better. I guess it's the rich, brown crust that tickles their appetites. They all say it's good and we eat it on our table. Why do you ask?"

"Why, that's a secret between the boss and me," I answered and slipped away.

"I am so happy that the last pimple is gone—"

WITHOUT this handicap, there returns the very natural confidence, joy and cherished pride of possessing a clear skin.

Men and women both justly covet admiration, and you can expect such satisfaction only if you are happy in a clear, unblemished skin.

The sure way to reach this state is through the blood.

Red blood cells are Nature's elements for building and sustaining the body.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

You know a clear skin comes from within. Correct the cause—through the blood—and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

Thousands have regained their strength and charm by taking a few bottles of S.S.S.—Nature's own tonic for restoring the appetite—building strength—and clearing the body of so-called skin troubles.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Get the larger size. It is more economical.

MOVIES

AT THE VONCASTLE

Whether or not a girl is warranted in breaking away from her parents in order to live her own life, is the perplexing problem brought out in "We Americans," the Universal picture to be shown at the Voncastle Theater tonight and Friday.

This age-old problem, now one of the most acute ones of the day, because of the great latitude of present-day conventions and customs, provides a gripping and colorful framework around which the story of "We Americans" has been constructed.

Vibrant youth—youth on the rampage, straining against parental bonds, eagerly seeking to catch step with the progressive, exciting pace of the times, is the most interesting subject in the world today. In the persons of a group of representative young Americans, Universal has provided an attractive cast of characters for the working out of this subject. They are Patsy Ruth Miller, Flora Bramley, Josephine Dunn, George Lewis, John Boles and Eddie Phillips. Strikingly pretty girls, pleasingly handsome young men, they are typical of the new generation.

The situations in this picture are the situations happening today by every fireside throughout the land, and the carefree, danger-fraught exuberances of the young people free from parental restraint, hold a mirror to the high life that is luring the modern youngster from drab surroundings.

How tragedy is averted, both for parents and for children, is deftly shown in this story, with plenty of laughs and tears amid its vivid action and gripping drama. Edward Sloan directed it.

Konjola Filled His System With New Life Energy

Entirely Free of Stomach Trouble Since Taking This Medicine.

MR. FRANK S. SWANSON

"Konjola did everything claimed for it in my case and I strongly endorse it to others," writes Mr. Frank S. Swanson, 213 Ridge Road, Gary, Ind.

"My stomach was so disordered that I was forced to take soda two or three times a day to stop the gas pains and sometimes I would be in misery for several hours after eating. I was always short of breath and quite often I was so weak I could hardly stand up. All this suffering made me very nervous and at night I could never go right off to sleep like other people.

"Two bottles of Konjola completely relieved my stomach trouble and I am entirely free of all the miseries I used to suffer after eating. My nerves are a great deal stronger and I enjoy sound, peaceful sleep at night. Those who suffer in poor health will be surprised at the effects of Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Greencastle at the Owl Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section. —(Adv.)

MEN DESIRE FOOD MIXED WITH BEAUTY

SO CLAIMS RESTAURANT OWNER WHO GETS PRETTY WAITRESSES TO SERVE MEN.

COLUMBUS, O., July 5. (UP)—Cyrus W. Schwartz, prominent Columbus restaurant owner, has used a little psychology in the matter of hired help for his several coffee shops about town.

Schwartz noticed that his business, instead of flowing along in the desired smooth style with regular customers, was fluctuating. He found that people, after eating a few times in his establishments, would move on to other places.

After a little study, Schwartz discovered that waitresses were being hired with an eye only to their ability and with little consideration of their personal appearances.

He also found that many of the pulchritudinous damsels waiting table were placed in sections of his eating houses frequented unusually by couples, while in many cases the plainer representatives of womanhood were juggling trays and serving them off the arm in the sections devoted mostly to men.

Which was not as it should be, thought Schwartz.

After much careful consideration, he decided the reason for the phenomena might lie in the fact that the male half of the couples were much pleased and the better half not so much pleased with the service of the beautiful waitresses.

More consideration of the matter convinced Cyrus that if he substituted the pretty maidens for the plain ones in the section occupied by parties of men, his customers would be more permanent.

The change was made, and lo! the couples began returning regularly, while the male element of the restaurants became a regular noon and evening gathering.

Since the change, Schwartz has put two new coffee shops into operation, he said.
